

Examples for formatting JJP articles and book reviews

Formatting article titles:

Article Title

Author's Name

Department, Institution

Abstract: Here is where the abstract goes.

This is the first sentence of the text.

Formatting subheadings:

This is the end of the paragraph above the A-level subheading.

This Is an A-Level Subhead

This is the beginning of the new section [...]

This is a B-level subhead

This is the beginning of the material under this subheading.

Formatting book reviews:

Author, Title, City, Press, Year.

Text of the review.

—Author's Name

Author's Affiliation

Notes